

Bangalore Junior Model United Nations, 2022

Conference Code of Conduct

General Delegate Conduct

- All Delegates must be dressed in Formal Business Attire for the entire Duration of the Conference. If a delegate's attire is deemed inappropriate, he/she will have to leave Committee Session and change his/her outfit.

Boys:

Outfit: Light Colored Collared/Button-Down Shirts, Dark Colored Trousers, Ties (Optional), Dark Colored Blazer/Jacket/Suit (Optional), Shoes,

Hair: Clean haircut, groomed facial hair

Girls:

Outfit: Light Colored Blouses/Button Up Shirts, Dark Colored Trousers/Knee Length Pencil skirt/A line Skirt, Dark Colored Blazer/Jacket/Suit (Optional), Comfortable footwear (No High Heels)

Hair: Should be neat and out of the face

No Flashy Jewellery, accessories will be allowed.

- All Delegates are expected to maintain decorum during the Conference while respecting fellow delegates' ideas, viewpoints and opinions. If necessary, the secretariat can bar such offenders from the conference for a time up to possibly the remainder of the conference, at their sole discretion.
- Bangalore JMUN will not tolerate any instances of harassment, discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, caste, creed, religion, nationality etc, both within and outside of committee.
- Further if anyone feels that have encountered Harassment, especially sexual, or Discrimination, resulting in a hostile working environment, is to report the incident to the Faculty Advisor Bangalore JMUN poulomi.dasgupta@oakridge.in and Secretary General jia_misra@oakridge.in /Director Generals siddharth_satish@oakridge.in / aagney_gorthi@oakridge.in to which the JMUN Secretariat will take appropriate action after investigation.
- Delegates are expected to comply with all instructions provided by organizing members and security at various points throughout the JMUN. Direct infringement of such rules will result in disciplinary action.
- All the internal delegate need to comply to the Oakridge Code of Conduct during the conference.

JMUN Rules and Regulations

- Any instances of plagiarism in delegate speeches, chits, position papers, or committee documentation is strictly prohibited, and will be monitored carefully by executive boards.
- Delegates are required to ensure that they are careful with any school property that they use. Any damage will be noted by the secretariat, and could result in possible reimbursement.
- Delegates are required to carry their school ID cards to enter on the first day of conference. Delegates will be issued JMUN ID cards stating their allotment at the beginning of the conference, post their registration on Day 1. These ID cards must remain with them and visible throughout the conference.
- The school takes no responsibility whatsoever for personal belongings/money that delegates bring on their own behalf.
- No delegates are permitted to remain on campus outside conference hours, as detailed in our Schedule. The school is not liable to any delegate activities outside conference hours.
- All school delegations must be accompanied by a faculty member preferably.
- Delegates are required to wear masks and diligently follow all preventive COVID-19 measures issued by the school during the conference.

Technology Rules and Regulation

- Phones are not allowed on the school premises and not to be used by the delegates during the conference hours.
- No laptops/ I Pads/ Tablets to be used during the entire conference.

By registering for the Bangalore JMUN 2022, delegates agree to follow the above Conference Terms and Conditions in its entirety.